Aloha ka Uhaue, ka Hoanipi o ke Kino!
[A NEWELL TO THE SOUL, BY MARIA, A MODERN HAWAIIAN CHRISTIAN POET.]

Aloha! love to thee, O Soul!
My body's bosom friend!
When'er it clouds or sun-shine stole, I'll true love that attend;
It's comrades to the end,
And loving to the end!

And must thou go? Friend of my heart!
Who dost abide by me?
When on my path of thine would start, Forth by land and sea,
And dark storm clouds their thunders dart,
To sever me from thee?

My true companion hast thou been In pleasures days of peace;
And when the sword of war I've seen, Thy presence did not cease—Thou, for me, faint and sad, I wend, To die were a release!

While I was here, the days roll'd on,
The fleeting years sped fast;
The heart's own life was on my face,
"Mong whom my life was pass'd;
And now, my Soul! since they are gone, Thou too must go at last!"

NOTE.—This beautiful work of Maria is not complete as given above, and the conclusion is beautiful. In the Polynesia, July, 1880, Rev. L. Andrews published the original, with a translation, which I have not seen. E. M. D.

VARIETY.
Boston Advertiser.—"Ode to a washerwoman —$1.50."

A female justice of the peace in Wyoming recently fined her husband for drunkenness.

A little boy's first pair of trousers always fit if the pockets are deep enough.

"Do you like codfish balls, Mr. Wiggins?"
"I really don't know, I don't recollect attending one."

"WATER!" "Yes, sir." "What's this?" "It's bean-soup." "No matter what it has been.
The question is: What is it now?"

Last New Year's a man, in his twenty-fifth call, spoke with some haste and nervousness of Washington watching the Delaware.

One of the subtle orators of old Virginia made a good point when he said, "De oyster got mo' sense dan some folks," cause he know when to keep his mouth shut."

"Is your master up?" asked an early visitor of a nobleman's valet. "Yes, sir," replied the valet, with great innocence; "the butler and I carried him up about 3 o'clock."

A woman who applied for a situation as cal-driver, being asked if she could manage mules, scornfully replied: "Of course I can—I've had two husbands."

"Gossip," says George Eliot, "is a sort of smoke that comes from the dirty tobacco-pipes of those who diffuse it; it proves nothing, but the bad taste of the smoker."

A clergyman in Northern Indiana ascended the pulpit the other Sunday and said, "No man can serve the Lord while he has the jumping toothache. I therefore dismiss the congregation."

Forty millions of free people, dedicated from infancy to adoption of the pillulium of their liberties, will some time or other drop over upon the inventor of "bull-doing," and smash him down, down into the night of everlasting nothingness.

"PASCAL VERVA"—Socio-Canadian shanty, America (at the door). "Ye ain't my first critter at a bar, and I'll miss him!" Voice (from the bunk):
"Send a bar and dog—they were runnin'—dog were a little ahead of 'em!"—Punch.

"Do you reside in this city?" asked a valet of a masked lady at a masquerade party the other evening. "No, I live where I said to him in a low voice, 'Don't be a fool, John; I know you by that wart on your thumb.' It was his wife."

The Rochester Democrat indulges in the following reminiscence: "I wish I were you about two hours," she said, "I felt sick when she said to him in a low voice, 'Don't be a fool, John; I know you by that wart on your
thumb.' It was his wife."

Dialogue between two Lowland Scotchmen, a farmer and a tradesman. The farmer takes up a piece of cloth and the following questions and answers ensue: "Oo?" "Ay, oo?" "Ay, ah oo?" "That is:
"Wool?" "Yes, wool." "All wool?" "Yes, all wool." "All one wool?" "Yes, all one wool."

An "able seaman" from Argamurhan was at the tiller of his ship one night, shortly after the introduction of colored signal lights on ships.
A steamer was approaching, and Arley saw the green and red lights for the first time at sea.
He exclaimed his shipmates by yelling out:
"Hard a port! We're gunn right into the 'pothecary's shop at Gourock!"

Some boys amused the whole neighborhood the other afternoon. They placed together a number of old newspapers and ran a string through them. When a lady came along, one boy would walk behind her for a short distance, let the papers fall, pick them up, run after the woman, and holding them up, tell her she dropped her bustle. Of course they all denied it, but was noticeable how their hands turned unusually wet behind to pull down their trousers.

There is a story told of two Scotch lads who knew little of gunnery and natural history, but were familiar with King James' Bible and with the winged heads that pass for cherubs in painting and sculpture. Going out to gunn together, one of them shot a bird and the other ran to secure the trophy. Coming near where it had fallen, he found a white owl so sprawled in the grass as to present to his view only a head, with staring eyes and a pair of wings attached. In stead he shouted in dismay: "We're in for it now, Jack; we've shot a cherubim!"

Tax-Sucker Second Thought.—Some persons cannot stand prosperity. A little money makes them extravagant. To such, this incident may teach the restraint that there is in sober second thought:

A farmer entered a Griswold street restaurant, after selling his wood, and ordered chicken, turkey, oysters, birds, wine, &c. After the departure of the waiter, the bill of fare was examined, and he looked over, and he realized that he had ordered a lot of money. In another minute he pounded on the table, and called out, "I want to see that waiter!" The waiter entered, and the farmer ordered that other order, and bring me in some meat, and taters, and bread.
I've sold my wood, as I said before, but I just happened to think that the corn crop may bust on me, and where'd I quail on toast be then?"

FADDY IS RICE.
TO SHIPPERS OF PADDY, AN IMPRESsion seems to prevail in the Islands that Paddy, because of not being named in the Treaty, is not admissible free of duty. This is a mistake. Paddy being coming under the introduction of the word "rice" would have been admissible. All the Paddy that has arrived at this port since the promulgation of the Treaty has been admitted free without question.
Parties desiring of shipping Paddy to this market, should it will be admitted free of duty, and loaded and dressed in the best possible manner and on favorable terms by
